

SPIES ASSAULTS BLANFORD

ROWDY BASEBALL ON THE ST. PAUL DIAMOND.

The Saints' Catcher Tried to Interfere With Blanford, Who Used a Three-Cornered Word and Received an Uppercut.

St. Paul, Minn., May 7 .- (Special.) It was the same thing over again to-day. The Blues hit the ball harder and played the better game in the field, but the game went to the Saints just the same.

The responsibility lies mainly in the weakness in the box. Newell started in to pitch. For three innings he pitched fairly good ball. In the fourth, after he had given three bases on balls, hit one man, and had been hit for two singles and a home run, resulting in seven runs, Mc-Fariand was substituted. He was not much of an improvement, although he finished the game. In the fifth he was hit for a home run and a threebagger, mixed up with two men hit, and a base on balls and five more runs were accummulated. An error by Connaughton and a hit gave the Saints one more in the seventh. In the eighth they got another on errors by J. Bannon and Connaughton. In the ninth Nyce was hit and scored on a single and in the tenth, errors by McVicker and Rellly and a single resulted in two more runs. The Blues got two in the first on a base on bails, a hit and Parrott's error. In the fourth, three hits and three stolen bases gave them two more. Two errors, two hits and a base on bails made it six in the fifth. Mulliane was then retired, the score being 15 to 6, and Fricken was sent to the box. The Blues found him for two twobaggers and a single, which, with two wild pitches and an error, netted three runs. One was earned in the seventh on three singles, and three more were An error by Connaughton and a hit gave three runs. One was earned in the sev-enth on three singles, and three more were accumulated in the eighth. In the ninth the Blues tied the score on two of Shu-gart's errors, singles by J. Bannon and Carney, a wild pitch and Reilly's home run.

In the tenth inning, Spies and Reiliy got mixed up at third base. When Spies came home he attempted to interfere with Blanford. The latter called him an opprobrious name and Spies smashed Blanford in the face. For this he was ordered out of the game and McGill and Hollingsworth were game and McGill and Hollingsworth were put in to finish the game for the Apostles. Carney opened with a hit, but McGill caught him napping off first; Menefee was struck out and T. Bannon could not get the ball out of the diamend. The feature of the game was Jim Bannon's batting. He made five singles and a twobagger in seven times at bat. His field play was bad, however, and Connaughton's errors were costly.

POOR MAN'S FRIEND.

A Wife Restored to Health by Dr. Hartman's Free Treatment.

The following letter was recently received from Mr. George A. Blanchard, Washington, Ga. This letter speaks for itself and requires no additional words:

"I have used Pe-ru-na in my family eve since you sent me your books. Pe-ru-na has been the treatment of every case of sickness in my family since then. Two years ago my wife was sick for two months. We tried two different doctors, but the case was very stubborn, being a menstruni difficulty. I can find no words to describe her misery. The doctor's treatment only made her worse, and I, being a poor man was spellbound, not knowing what to do. Finally I came across a Peru-na Almanne: looking into it I found a cut representing catarrh of the throat. My throat had been subject to periodical affection for the last twenty years, and if any medicine had done any good it was so little that I did not realize it. Reading the book I found that Pe-ru-na was not only good for catarrh of the throat, but also catarrh of the pelvic organs and nervous prostration. I immediately sent for more of your books, and in one of them I found a description of my wife's case. I quit the doctors and purchased a bottle of Pe-ru-na. Three days later my wife got up and has been well ever since. I have not been bothered with the throat affection since taking Pe-ru-na. Before my wife used Pe-ru-na her trouble caused her a week's sickness every month. But now she does not lose a day and has gained over 59 pounds in weight. GEORGE A. BLANCHARD." since you sent me your books. Pe-ru-na has been the treatment of every case of avery month. But now she does not lose a day and has gained over 59 pounds in weight. GEORGE A BLANCHARD."

Cleveland, O., May 7.—To-day's game was a slugging match, in which Denzer got a little the worst of it. The Indians won by a close shave, a great catch by Burkett saving the game in the ninth. There was brilliant fielding by both sides, though the general work of the Colts was loose. Sockalexis made three singles and a triple in four times at bat, besides getting his base on balls once. His base running was a feature of the game, and one of his live putouts was a one-handed running catch of a line drive. Score:

Baltimore 13, Philadelphia 11, Philadelphia, May 7.—Baltimore and Philadelphia had an old-fashloned batting game to-day, and Baltimore came out on top. The hitting was chiefly done after chances had been given to retire the side. The pitching on both sides was unsteady, eleven bases being given and five men hit. The batting of Cooley was about the only feature. Flifeld pitched the first three innings for Philadelphia, and was then relieved by Wheeler. Attendance, 6.38. Score:

Fans who believe in the efficacy of prayer should pull for the Blues to win to-day's game. CREAM BAKING POWDER

No pitcher has been nearly as effective against the champions as Payne, of the Brooklyns. The day that Rusle pitches for New York in Cincinnati an excursion will be run from Indianapolis. Jimmie Bannon "hit like a fiend" yester-day, but his errors—oh, his errors. Excuse these silent tears.

And just to think, we outplayed those top-notch Apostles in every blessed game lost to them at St. Paul.

and Kansas City yesterday four were earned. We earned half of them. Nineteen errors in one game is not such a had record, Suppose there had been twen-ty and the Blues had made them all, Stranger things have happened.

Probably the worst batter in the league to-day is Cross. St. Louis' shortstop. He has played in eight games and has been "at bat" twenty-two times, but has made only one hit.

WORKING ALL KINDS OF WIRES. Cooper Wants the Race Results and the Western Union Heads

Him Off. The war between the Western Union and the pool rooms which pay for their telegraph service on one side, against Cooper, who gets his race reports by grapevine, underground, or any old way, on the other hand, has broken out in a fresh spot. On Thursday afternoon "Doc" Murphy, who graph service on one side, against Cooper, who gets his race reports by grapevine, underground, or any old way, on the other hand, has broken out in a fresh spot. On Thursday afternoon "Doc" Murphy, who has been working on the case for the telegraph company, succeeded in breaking the communication between Maltby's room and the room in the hotel upstairs in which one of Cooper's men had a telephone. The operator at Maltby's was instructed to quit calling the races altogether and the instrument was toned down so low that the man above could hear nothing. This practically shut Cooper out for the balance of that afternoon and he set out to find another location for his telephone.

Yesterday he rented a room in the Smith house, just across the alley from Biller's, where through an open window' every word spoken by the operator in Biller's room could be plainly heard. Along in the afternoon the indefatigable Murphy got ento this new location and he immediately opened up negotiations with the landlord by which in a short while he got permission to cut the wires and Cooper was stranded again. The operator in the room hearing nothing from Cooper knew that something had happened and becoming aware of the fact that several men were waiting outside the door of the room to do him up when he came out he quietly slipped out the window, climbed to the roof of an adjoining building and worked his way down without being seen. Cooper got what he could of the races for the rest of the afternoon by means of runners, but this method is slow and uncertain and he will probably bob up in some other place with a telephone to-day.

Both Fighters Badly Punished. Both Fighters Badly Panished.

Allegan, Mich., May 7.—The most brutal prize fight ever fought in Western Michigan was pulled off early this morning in a barn east of this city. Eddy Shannon, of Detroit, and Lew Agnew, of Jersey City, were the publilists. There were 200 spectators. Three times the referee tried to stop the fight, fearing that Shannon's punishment would prove fatal, but the men, who were dripping with blood, kept at it to the forty-fifth round, when both fell from exhaustion. Shannon sprained his wrist in the twenty-sixth round, but continued to fight like a fiend.

MR. HARRIS' SUBSTITUTE.

TO MAKE INTERSTATE COMMISSION A JUDICIAL TRIBUNAL.

Would Divide the United States Into Five Districts, Each of Which Should Be Presided Over by a Railroad Commission. Washington, May 7 .- (Special.) Senator Harris, of Kansas, has prepared a substi-tute bill which he will offer in the senate, providing for the conversion of the interstate commerce commission into a tribunal in making regulations and enforcing their decrees. It provides for the division of the United States into five districts, each of which is to be presided over by a ber of the court of railroad commissioners, and the six to form a general court for the adjudication of all cases growing out of questions relating to rates and dis-putes among railroads now dealt with by the interstate commerce commission.

Conductors' Train Leaves Chicago. Chicago, May 7.-To-night a special train will leave over the Santa Fe, carrying 450 conductors from territory tributary to Chi-cago to Los Angeles to attend the bienial session of the grand division of the Order of Railway Conductors. The excursion will be under the auspices of Chicago di-vision No. 1, of the order. The train will consist of ten Pullman sleepers, baggage and dining car. The itinerary will be di-rect to Los Angeles. The return will be made by way of San Francisco, Portland, Spokane Falls and St. Paul and Minneap-olis. Arrangements have been made to enter-
